Out of the Shadows

Stratovarius

Out to the light from the mist
From the shadows I go
Facing the new world the odd things
The places unknownFar away
I sail away todaySeeing a new face impression
The moment, the thought
Unarmed and naked defendless
My mind is caughtFar away
It sails away todayOut of the shadows, we go
There's no reason to hide anymore
Out of the shadows, we go
Into the new horizon towards the new shore, we goOut of the shadows, we go
There's no reason to hide anymore
Out of the shadows, we go
Into the new horizon towards the new shore, we goInto the new horizon towards the new shore, we go
