Wither

Counterparts

I am more than familiar with feeling empty
The conduit; I allow myself to drain
My mind is the trench in which I will be buried You watch me wither away put me out of my miseryI can only find solace in sleep a sub-conscious sanctuar
I am longing to be set free yet I am the one who holds the keyI am the oneï»¿ who holds the key
A lifetime spent trying to place the blame on anyone or anything
This is not who I am
This is not who I used to be Set me free
