Green

The Dandy Warhols

You opened the door,
I let myself in.
Between you and me,
I only believe
What I want to believe.
I guess it's because I'm
Greener than green.
Only because I'm green.
Only because I'm green.

I came up to your floor
You were dressed
Just a little obscene.
And it shut me down
Quite sexually
Like a pre-adolescent because I'm greener than green.

Only because greener then green.
Only because I'm green.
