Gods Gift (Maggot)

Skinny Puppy

[Incomprehensible]
Twilight last gleaming
[Incomprehensible]
Mercury with no degree
Bloody lies the black sun
Eyes of God
Skies the limitProceeding in this darkness way
Crawl in back at the end of your halo
You're bloody righteous
Declare the light wounding forever
Judgment of his righteousnessSaid man in a plane
Falling back again
Over a chair
Chair backwards falling down
Knives in the eyes
Maggots fill the brain
Falling chair
Falling on the plane awayRain, rain, atomic grin on the floor
In a pool of blood on lifeless grin
Back to the bedroom
With a grinWhere the master remarks down the phantoms
Living out the miseries
It's hard to fathom, what dead man will go
It's hard to fathom, hard for game I'm gone
God gave maggots
God gave maggots
God gave maggots
God gave maggotsEye socket in the face never less and back again
Open wound inasmuch over silence backwash
God gives maggots
God gives maggots
God gives maggots
God gives maggots
Inside a away
Back to the caveDescription bottle way temples museum
Ghostly remain never rule gain
Never winning consolation of life
Brides work
Brides work and stay young

[Incomprehensible]Labrynth
Follow
Savage
Compass is the easy road
To destroy magic creation
Built
Motion
Come back to living
Must God give us maggotsGod gives maggot
Confess maggot
My friend maggot
Life built maggot
