

I Won't be There

The Milkshakes

I've been looking for the girl that I once knew
The girl with nothing to lose, right before she met you
I've been telling her everything that I've learned since then
Never gonna make them, same mistakes again

Oh baby

You know and I know

You held on, I let go

Now is the time to move on

Let tomorrow be a new day

I'll be running from the heartache

And I won't be there, no no

I won't be there, no no

As the months turn into new years

Won't be crying any new tears

I won't be there, no no

I won't be there, no no

Hear me say, oh no no, never ever

Oh no baby, I won't be there, no no

I won't be there

Looking back I remember when I

Used to sit and cry, every day, all night

I'm telling you everything that you knew has changed

I'll be turning a new page, all the memories erased

'Cause baby

You know, and I know

You held on, I let go

Now is the time to move on

Let tomorrow be a new day

I'll be running from the heartache

And I won't be there, no no

I won't be there, no no

As the months turn into new years

Won't be crying any new tears

I won't be there, no no

I won't be there, no no

I won't be having bad dreams

I won't be having regrets

Tearing at the seams

They're the things I will forget

Baby when tomorrow comes
You're gonna be the only one
If you'd loved, if you'd have cared
Then babe I would be there
Hear me say, oh no no, never ever
Oh no baby, I won't be there, no no
I won't be there
Let tomorrow be a new day
I'll be running from the heartache
And I won't be there, no no
I won't be there, no no
As the months turn into new years
Won't be crying any new tears
I won't be there, no no
I won't be there, no no
Hear me say, oh no no, never ever
Oh no baby, I won't be there, no no
I won't be there
Hear me say, oh no no, never ever
Oh no baby, I won't be there, no no
I won't be there, no no
Let tomorrow be a new day
I'll be running from the heartache
And I won't be there, no no
I won't be there, no no
As the months turn into new years
Won't be crying any new tears
I won't be there, no no
I won't be there, no no
Let tomorrow be a new day
I'll be running from the heartache
And I won't be there, no no
I won't be there, no no
As the months turn into new years
Won't be crying any new tears
