Terror Zone

Kreator

My inner eye sees many spheres
A cruel dimension where time
And space distort beyond control
A ride to another center of the universe
My thoughts come undone make me
See the dark stains on my soulA darkness as cold as ice surrounds me in this place
I probe a veiled phobia, all my own
Creatures crawl out from my weirdest, wildest dreams
They are flesh, not fantasy,
They drag me inside the terror zoneDemons, ghouls and fiends that once I could ignore
Shred the skin and flesh from my bones
Planets form and die, the cosmos torment me
Unnatural, humongous, never ending terror zoneNow I know what dwells within me
Blood, a river of sweat and tears
Flesh, a land God left behind
Soul, a sky of cloudy fearsDeception and disguise
Dissolve before my inner eyes
My heart turns to stone
God, I'm all alone, oh, no
All alone terror zone
