To Say Something That Means Nothing To Anyone At A

Moneen

And you draw back, when you noticed me standing there
You can feel it, that I need it
And you draw back, when you noticed me standing there
We can see it, that you wanted me toSay hey, hey wait
And you draw back, when you noticed me standing there
I can feel it, that you need it
And you draw back, when I noticed you standing thereI can see it, that you wanted me to say hey, hey wait
'Cause we all know this means nothing
And if you want me back just say you want me back and I'll stay
There are no more secrets anymore, they all know
