

Dancing Dead

Avenged Sevenfold

Dead men, they celebrate
As the final chapter fades away
'Cause they can't hide
We can see their flesh is rottenThe band plays a hopeful tune
The champagne is poured as they socialize
But look in their eyes, hide in the light!Everything is paid for tonight
While at the party of the
Dead dancing in their graves
The drinks here are free
So relax, enjoy the sight of all the
Dead dancing in their gravesAnd while the world that they built
Told 'em to change, told 'em to listen
They just kept it the same
And now that midnight has come
I'm in a room watching the Dead dancing in their gravesBones covered up by suits
As the visible scars, they multiply
Kiss it goodbye
I'm too stubborn and I will destroyTick, tock, the time bomb has been Recognized and pressurized
Nowhere to hide
Swallowing lightEverything is paid for tonight
While at the party of the
Dead dancing in their graves
The drinks here are free
So relax, enjoy the sight of all the
Dead dancing in their gravesAnd while the world that they built
Told 'em to change, told 'em to listen
They just kept it the same
And now that midnight has come
I'm in a room watching the
Dead dancing in their gravesI feel a coming strength
And now it's too late to change[Incomprehensible]
[Incomprehensible]
[Incomprehensible]Everything is paid for tonight
While at the party of the
Dead dancing in their graves
The drinks here are free
So relax, enjoy the sight of all the

Dead dancing in their graves And while the world that they built
Told 'em to change, told 'em to listen
They just kept it the same
And now that midnight has come
I'm in a room watching the
Dead dancing in their graves Feel, feel a coming strength
And now it's too late to change
Feel, feel a coming strength
And now it's too late to change Feel, feel a coming strength
And now it's too late to change
Feel, feel a coming strength
And now it's too late to change
