Tired (Radio Edit)

Liquido

I'm tired of sleeping my life away just scared of this feeling of hurt I'm tired of wasting my timeit's awaking.
I'm tired of touching your skin I'm tired of wishing my fears away Awaiting the tip of the tip it's amazing.I heard my father sing Take your bow and whistle The answer lies in front of us it shivers, it quivers so let your work beginI'm tired of reading the news the wavelength that weakens the weak I'm tired of thinking 'bout yesterday must be dieing.I'm tired staying awake all night I'm tired that struggle within completely beating me up it's amazing.
Take my bow and whistle nowthe answer lies in front of us angered by that lies tearing up the tide|: my lover discover
it shivers, it quivers
imagine that ill wind slow motion devotionslip back and you shiver for the one track other track relation sensation :|
When you got it thrown back and my lover for the motion covering throw it backI'm tired of wasting my time I'm tired of sleeping my life away it's awaking.
just scared of this feeling of hurtI'm tired of wishing my fears away I'm tired of touching your skin it's amazing.Awaiting the tip of the tip
