

Her Rosary

Third Realm

The scriptures bleeding from the pen
As it was, a world without an end
The dreadful mystery at hand
The angel trying to withstand

Enter the garden of despair
Defending light without a prayer
Her rosary disarms the knife
Drain nightmares from this tired life

Save the prince from total darkness, bring him to the praying goddess,
Kiss like Scarlet, bite like Lilith, take away the scars to prove it,
Staggering with lips of torture, drug my soul, deceive the altar,
In your mind I am a sinner, in my mind you are a killer

The scriptures bleeding from the pen
As it was, a world without an end
The dreadful mystery at hand
The angel trying to withstand

Save the prince from total darkness, bring him to the praying goddess,
Kiss like Scarlet, bite like Lilith, take away the scars to prove it,
Staggering with lips of torture, drug my soul, deceive the altar,
In your mind I am a sinner, in my mind you are a killer

Save the prince from total
