

I've Got News for You

David Sanborn

You said before me met that your life was awful tame Well, I took you to a night club and the whole band knew your name. Oh, Well, baby, baby, baby I've Got News For You Oh, somehow your story don't ring true, Well,

I've got news for you. Well, you phoned me you'd be late cause you took the wrong express and then you walked in smiling with your lipstick all a mess Oh, let me say to you little mama, Wo, I've Got News for you

Ah, your story don't ring true lil girl Yeah, I've got news for you. (Instrumental - subdominant bridge) (A section solo) Oh, you wore a diamond watch, claimed it was from Uncle Joe. When I looked at the inscription it said love from Daddy-O. Oh, well baby, wo lil girl, I wanna say I've Got News For You. Ah, if you think that jive will do Let me tell you, oh, I've Got News For You Well, somehow your story don't ring true Wo, I've Got News For You.
