Nobody's Perfect

Wayland

Must have a switch blade
Hiding in your high heel boot
Cause youre high grade
As clever as you are cuteMight be some kind of spy
Undercover for the law
May be a she male
Lying underneath it allFeels a little to good to be true
Yeah there must be something wrong with youFrom zero to 10 man Im doing it again
On a trip that never ends
Looking for a sign or something out of line
To help me change my mind
Cause nobodys perfectIm a simple jack
Theres so much I dont understand
With a simple life
Baby Im a working manAnd I got no money
But nothing ever comes for free
So wont you tell me
Tell me what you see in meCause you feel too good to be true
There must be something wrong withFrom zero to 10 man Im doing it again
On a trip that never ends
Looking for a sign or something out of line
To help me change my mind
Cause nobodys perfect(Instrumental Break)Cause you feel too good to be true
There must be something wrong withFrom zero to 10 man Im doing it again
On a trip that never ends
Looking for a sign or something out of line
To help me change my mind
Cause nobodys perfectFrom zero to 10 man Im doing it again
On a trip that never ends
Looking for a sign or something out of line
To help me change my mind
Cause nobodys perfect
