

World Gone Mad

Martin Levac

Weâ€™re fighting for peace again, people out on the streets
Shouting stop the killings , itâ€™s like history repeats
And weâ€™re so divided, thereâ€™s no in between
Are we near the end or is it just beginning?
Arenâ€™t we only humans carrying peace inside?
But we think we do have the right to take power
Over our own brothers, it makes me feel so sad
Wondering why the word has gone mad?
Are you still my friend or are you with them?
Yet weâ€™re all the same species, so why canâ€™t we live in peace?
And Iâ€™m so downhearted, â€˜cos thereâ€™s no in between
Havenâ€™t we learned anything or are we just repeating?
Arenâ€™t we only humans carrying love inside?
But fear of our differences turns into fights
Against our own brothers , it makes me feel so sad
Wondering why the word has gone mad?
