

The Last Song

Midnight Reign

Take my breathe away
Say all I need to hear
And it all lies where it lies
Time, you think I'd had enough
It's too late, too late I can't give up
And sometimes all I want is an end
This will be the last song
That I ever sing...
To you
Take my breathe away
And say all I need to hear
And sometimes all I want is an end
