Baby DNA

The Butchies

a day like no other the fullness of the sounds like sun no other day no other day and steal a way at the procession have they said one nice thing in years it could have been you it had to be you no one else would do "cause you know that you have the right to be the one tonight walk around the town that you own you'll be the baby make two in DNA want the child to grow up oneday who needs "man" anyway we'll have this city always you know that you are the one to make it come undone walk around this town that you made you are the baby DNA
