So When

Hurt

Our love was wasted, face it
When I try to let it go
Should've known what you do to me
The place is vacant when you're gone
Miss, you'll be the death of me

I'll play along
Something's wrong cause
I feel it in your overtones
I try to sing along, sit alone
To get away from me
But I still taste the way...

You swore that you'd die
If you'd leave me
So why are you still
Breathing

Mother I'm alone
(I'm alone in the water)
I've got to be alone
(cause there's blood in the water)
I've got to carry on

(blood is thicker than water)
Baby is alone
(cause there's blood in the water)
Well if apathy could be a friend of mine
The matches made could burn
The sands of time

You swore that you'd die
If you'd leave me
So why are you still
Breathing

You swore that you'd die
If you'd leave me
So why are you still

Breathing

Cause you swore that you'd die
If you leave me
So what, so what
So did I...
So what, so when
So what, so when
So die
