

Whenever You're Ready (We'll Go Steady Again)

Elton John

Oh, I lived in a tenement six floors above
I lent you my records and I lent you my love
But you left me on the weekend without a by-your-leave
That's a dirty and a low-down trick, my folks all think you're mean
Oh, but I don't mind, that's kind of nifty
You always see those break-ups in the movies
And just like a light, honey, you put me out
Now I'm gonna do my best to get you back in the nest you came from
You can erase me if you want to
Turn your sights on other men
But whenever you're ready
Honey, we'll go steady again
Oh, it's nasty without you in my little room
I missed you like crazy, please come back soon
I was joking with those things I said, I couldn't have been thinking
If you don't come back I think I'll crack just like my old ceiling
You can erase me if you want to
Turn your back in other men
But whenever you're ready
Honey, we'll go steady again, oh
You can erase me if you want to
Turn your back in other men
But whenever you're ready
Honey, we'll go steady again
Oh, honey, we'll go steady again

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>