

Underwater

Tegan and Sara

Underwater I wrote drowning
I use to be such a good, good swimmer
But for now my head is in the clouds
I'm a silly love song, a twisted elbow crush song I would go to jail with only boys
Just to prove I was as tough as you
And when I get out for good behavior
I'll be writing love songs, silly banging knee songs I'm a car crash but I have to get it up
And every morning it's a clean up
And all I need is time, time to love you The forecast is gray
But we're staying inside
You must live close
I've seen you drive by I left signs on the lawn
Where have they gone?
Did you take them to tease me?
To follow or lead me? You're a silly love song
A verse, chorus and such
Some silly love song
A verse, chorus and such I'm a car crash but I have to get it up
And every morning it's a clean up
And all I need is time, time to love you All I need is time, all I need is time
All I need is time, time to love you
All I need is time, all I need is time
All I need is time, time to love you
Baby, all I need is time, time to love you
Time to love you
