

Shadowland

Kreator

In a land where no love can be born
Self destruction everywhere
A restless soul on its search for an answer
Sees through this masquerade of despair
In a time where no love can be born
Desperation frozen eyes
A restless soul so alone no direction
Suffering as they follow the blind
This is a new dawn rising
Over this shadowland
This is a new dawn rising
Over this shadowland
Tearing you from the world that you used to know
In a land where no love can be born
Isolation is the price
And the horror of this cold soulless place here
Put everlasting stains on your life
In a time where no love can be born
Another crisis yet to come
A senseless life breeds a senseless death
Wondering what kind of pain will come next
This is a new dawn rising
Over this shadowland
This is a new dawn rising
Over this shadowland
Tearing you from the world that you used to know
Tired of being alive
Losing every time
Suffering side by side
Shadows of mankind
This is a new dawn rising
Over this shadowland
This is a new dawn rising
Over this shadowland
Tearing you from the world that you used to know
