Where To Now

Cider Sky

Tell me where to now 'cause the lights are up
And the covers and the gloves are off
There's no win or lose so go ahead make your move
Let's just pray that it's good enough
There's a war in my heart getting tired of fighting
When you say that you love me it hurts like lightning
Where to now
Who knows
Where to now
Who knows
Where to now
Who knows
Someone stop the clock before the good gets lost
Before my heart has to start again
Will I go alone or will you bring me home
You see through my eyes like broken windows
So tell me if we're dying before I let go
Who knows

Where to now
Who knows
Where to now
Who knows
Where to now
Who knows
Where to now
Who knows
Bitter bleeds bitter bleeds this heart
Bitter bleeds bitter bleeds this heart
When you say that you love me it hurts like lightning
Where to now
Who knows
Where to now
Who knows
Where to now
Who knows
Where to now
Who knows
