Earth

Meshell Ndegeocello

Let me be the rain You thirst for
Let me be the sun that You adore
And let my sweet, sweet ocean
Caress Your shore
Let Your heart, search no moreYou're my earth, mmm, paradise
I say You're my earth, my earth
My, my, You're my earth, You're my earth
Sweet paradise, I say You're my earthThere's no place I'd rather be
Your beauty is surrounding me
For Your tears black orchids bloomOrchids bloom, my soul is fed by You
Fed by You and water Your birth then death
It's back to dirt home, to youYou're my earth in paradise
I say You're my earth, my earth
My, my, You're my earth, You're my earth
Sweet, sweet paradise, I say You're my earthSweet, sweet, mmm
Sweet, sweet paradiseI searched for You all over the world
Yes, search, searched for You all my lifeI've searched, searched for You
Searched for You all my life, life
Mmm, yeahOh, I, mmm I've searched
Searched for You
Searched for You all my lifeI've searched, searched for You
Searched for You all my life, oh IListen to my heart speak
Bathe in the warmth of the morning sun
Morning sun, morning sunI wait for You, I wait for You, hmm
Bathe in the warmth of the morning sun
Morning sun, morning sun, my earthBathe in the warmth of the morning sun
I wait for You, I wait for You
Bathe in the warmth of the morning sun
I wait for You, I wait for YouBathe in the warmth of the morning sun
I wait for You, I wait for You
