

Earth

Meshell Ndegeocello

Let me be the rain You thirst for
Let me be the sun that You adore
And let my sweet, sweet ocean
Caress Your shore
Let Your heart, search no more You're my earth, mmm, paradise
I say You're my earth, my earth
My, my, You're my earth, You're my earth
Sweet paradise, I say You're my earth There's no place I'd rather be
Your beauty is surrounding me
For Your tears black orchids bloom Orchids bloom, my soul is fed by You
Fed by You and water Your birth then death
It's back to dirt home, to you You're my earth in paradise
I say You're my earth, my earth
My, my, You're my earth, You're my earth
Sweet, sweet paradise, I say You're my earth Sweet, sweet, mmm
Sweet, sweet paradise I searched for You all over the world
Yes, search, searched for You all my life I've searched, searched for You
Searched for You all my life, life
Mmm, yeah Oh, I, mmm I've searched
Searched for You
Searched for You all my life I've searched, searched for You
Searched for You all my life, oh I Listen to my heart speak
Bathe in the warmth of the morning sun
Morning sun, morning sun I wait for You, I wait for You, hmm
Bathe in the warmth of the morning sun
Morning sun, morning sun, my earth Bathe in the warmth of the morning sun
I wait for You, I wait for You
Bathe in the warmth of the morning sun
I wait for You, I wait for You Bathe in the warmth of the morning sun
I wait for You, I wait for You
