Fool For You

Heather Nova

You came into my life, I don't think that you meant to
You were standin' in a doorway, I was tryin' to walk through
Like an angel or the devil, I could never quite say
Doesn't matter anywaySo, I'm a fool for you
I'm a fool for you
Open my heart and let the wind blow through
'Cuz I'm a fool for youWell you can tell me anything and honey I'll believe
'Cuz when you keep me hangin', it only feeds the dream
I'm never gonna reach you, you're a distant shore
But you've still got me comin' back for moreSo I'm a fool for you
I'm a fool for you
Open my heart and let the wind blow through
'Cuz I'm a fool for youOh, let the wind blow throughAn' now the snow is fallin', all the roads are gone
The earth is moving, but I am movin' on
I had so much to tell you, but no words to say
It doesn't matter anywaySo, I'm a fool for you
I'm a fool for you
Open my heart and let the wind blow through
'Cuz I'm a fool for youOh, I'm a fool for you
I'm still a fool for you
Open my heart and let the rain fall through
'Cuz I'm a fool for you
