Take Me

Ben Walther

Take, take and receive, all of my liberty.
All I have and hope, Lord, you have given me.

Give me only your love, and your grace,
That be enough for me - yeah.
And I'm rich enough; I cannot replace
All that you've done... for... me,
So take me.

Search my heart and soul; whatever you find, I give you control.
Take this heart of mine, I give it to you,
To have and to hold.

Give me only your love, and your grace,
That be enough for me - yeah.
And I'm rich enough; I cannot replace
All that you've done... for... me,

I close my eyes and I let go,
I will not fear; Lord, I give you control.
Take my hand, lead me on; here we go.
I need nothing more!

Take my heart, take my life (x4)

Give me only your love, and your grace,
That be enough for me - yeah.
And I'm rich enough; I cannot replace
All that you've done... for... me

So take me.

(Lyrics inspired by Saint Ignatius of Loyola's 'Suscipe' prayer).
