

One Day At a Time

Jonas Brothers

Wednesday, I came home from school
Did my homework in my room
Then I watched some TV
I still miss you
Thursday, morning went on line
Got to school at half past nine
Wound up in detention
I still miss you
Everything I do
Brings me back to you
And I die
One day at a time
'Cause I just cant seem
To get you off my mind
No matter how I try
Try to kill the time
Well, I think that Im just going crazy
One day at a time
Friday, I got out of bed
Tried to smile, frowned instead
Burnt some toast for breakfast
I still miss you
Saturday, I turned sixteen
Never dreamt youd act so mean
You didnt even call me
But I still miss you
And when I turn ninety four
I think Ill miss you even more
And I die
One day at a time
'Cause I just cant seem
To get you off my mind
No matter how I try
Try to kill the time
Well, I think that Im just going crazy
One day at a time
I miss you more
Than I did a minute ago
Id climb a mountain
Just to hear your echo, you
All I wanted was you and tell me please
Do you think of me now and then
'Cause if I'll never see you again
I'll still miss you
And I die
To get you off my mind
No matter how I try
Try to kill the time
One day at a time
Oh, one day at a time

Well, I think that Im just going crazy
Oh, I think, Im going crazy
