

Where You're Coming From

Matt & Kim

I hear that shoe strings tend to break
But they tie back together great
I feel I know
I know where you're coming from Notebooks filled with lines
And the clocks filled with good times
I think I know
I know where you're coming from
Oh I know, I know where you're coming from I never have enough
And you always have too much
I might just know,
I know where you're coming from Quarters full the wash
All the other coins are tossed
I said I know
I know where you're coming
Oh I know where you're coming from I'm on my feet today
And I'm walking to the grave
I drew this map by hand
To show you how to become a man I'm on my feet today
And I'm walking to the grave
I said I-I know where you're coming from
Where you're coming from We the broke the walls out
In this old bedroom of your house
To make rooms for dreams
I know where you're coming from We hear they come and go
But today its here to stay
I said I know
I know where you're coming from
Oh I know, I know where you're coming from I'm on my feet today
And I'm walking to the grave
I drew this map by hand
Show you how to become a man I'm on my feet today
And I walking to the grave
I said I-I know where you're coming from
Where you're coming from
