

Dive

St. Christopher

Never found an answer, never found a reason

There was no talk back, 'cause you could never take back

Different conversation, little adulation

Took you to the bath-house, we waited at the entranceI hope that we will never forget, seeing sinners of the night

I hope that we will never regret, seeing sinners of the night

'Cause we can not, we can't ever, no we can not, take it back (no)Walking to the bedroom, waiting for the master

It's simple understanding, I talk you understand me (Ooh ooh ooh)

Wait till its over, when will it be overI hope that we will never forget, seeing sinners of the night

I hope that we will never regret, seeing sinners of the night

'Cause we can not, we can't ever, no we can not, take it backNow here we are, another voice from the afterlife
Who are we now? We know we're alive

We call you out, discover why we were left behind

The sun creates a different escape while we're still aliveNow we'll go, and know the answers are with us now
Console yourself, we already cried

Do we know too much? Are these pieces meant to be side by side?

I held my breath, you close your eyes, before the dive
