

Wreck Your World

Excel

[Verse 1:]

Visions of your love...

Drew me closer, I couldn't get enough

The presence of your hate...

Gave me the dreams, in which I relate[Chorus:]

You got the right to make up your mind

You're livin' your own free will

But if you start to mess with my head

I'll go in after to kill[Verse 2:]

Said that you loved me!

Obviously lying - it's easy

That's all I can take

For you now, your life is at stake[Chorus 2:]

You got the right to make up your mind

You're livin' your own free will

But if you start to mess with my head

I'll go in for the kill
