Valentine

Shawn Mullins

From all that is in me
I say these words with freedom on my tongue
I give to you all of me
In this crazy world, life has just begunNo one can take that away
It just keeps pourin' out like juice from berries on the vine
Nowhere is where I would be
Without you with me, valentineDon't mind my preciousness
I sing these words 'cause that's the way I feel
Many men have killed for less
I'd do the same if harm was ever hurled your wayI, I'll try to explain
It just keeps pourin' out like juice from berries on the vine
Nowhere is where I would be
Without you with me, valentineAnd when the storms roll in and nothin's goin' right, oh yeah
I'll be the one who holds you, oh yeah baby
And rock you through the nightNo one can take that away
It just keeps pourin' out like juice from berries on the vine
Nowhere is where I would be
Without you with me, hey valentineNo one can take that away
It just keeps pourin' out like juice, like juice from berries on the vine
Nowhere is where I would be
Without you with me, valentine
