

This Night

TM NETWORK

    Didn't I say
    I wasn't ready for a romance
    Didn't we promise
    We would only be friendsAnd so we danced
    Though it was only a slow dance
    I started breaking my promises
    Right there and thenDidn't I swear
    There would be no complications
    Didn't you want
    Someone who's seen it all beforeNow that you're here
    It's not the same situation
    Suddenly I don't remember the rules anymoreThis night is mine
    It's only you and I
    Tomorrow
    Is a long time away
    This night can last foreverI've been around
    Someone like me should know better
    Falling in love
    Would be the worst thing I could doDidn't I say
    I needed time to forget her
    Aren't you running from someone
    Who's not over youHow many nights
    Have I been lonely without you
    I tell myself
    How much I really don't careHow many nights
    Have I been thinking about you
    Wanting to hold you
    But knowing you would not be thereThis night
    You're mine
    It's only you and I
    I'll tell you
    To forget yesterday
    This night we are togetherThis night
    Is mine
    It's only you and I
    Tomorrow
    Is such a long time away
    This night can last foreverTomorrow
    Is such a long time away

This night can last forever
