Last Forever

Thirteen Senses

Sunrise is over
You're walking on by and I'm no one
Two lives, driven by quakes
You're walking alive, so I'm no oneAngel, see the signs
Don't worry leaving me behind
Ooh, woah, ooh, woah
Ooh, woah, oohAnimals they walk out of their hiding place
'Cause they're no one
The temper carries over
Your numbers have dropped, so you're no oneAngel, see the signs
Don't worry leaving me behind
And our cruddy lives
Are best when shaped into a neckAnd for all we gotta know
We're caught in one another
Be sure we were the first
That last forever
