Life Itself

Chris Brown

(instrumental)
It kills me to see you cry,
Even more when I tell a lie.
And it's always something I do
To you baby.
And I'm so sorry, for all the things
That I did.
And I can't say goodbye
Or let you just walkaway.
So I'll admit my wrongs.
And I
Hope you hear this,
Cause this a song I made for you.
And I'm hoping maybe,
I can win back your heart,
So
Please don't say goodbye,
I know the love still there,
Somewhere
Wish I could give my world.
And I know it hurts sometimes,
When
You deserve the world,
Nothing comes in between us
So you can never separate me from your love.
Oh darling,
I'm never ever letting go
Cause I love you more than life itself.
Just want you on my team girl.
And I don't give a damn about nothing else.
But the way I feel with you
Is so amazing (yeaah)
If I never get to see you,
Then I might as well never even open
My eyes.
I love you so,
That I can't
Let you go.

And I ain't tryna be selfish (nooo).
Just here to tell you
That you got my heart
And only you can tear it apart.
(Yeaaah, ohhhh)
Wish I could give my world.
And I know it hurts sometimes,
When
You deserve the world,
Nothing comes in between us
So you can never separate me from your love.
Oh darling,
I'm never ever letting go
Cause I love you more than life itself.
I'll make it easy,
Easy to love ya.
So I ain't gotta look nowhere else,
I know I found the right one.
Call me crazy,
But I love my baby,
More than anything.
And somethings taking over,
Anything you want, I'll hand it over,
I'm a ride this thang til the wheels fall off.
To the end of time, I'm forever yours, (yours)
Wish I could give my world.
And I know it hurts sometimes,
When
You deserve the world,
Nothing comes in between us
So you can never separate me from your love.
Oh darling,
I'm never ever letting go
Cause I love you more than life itself.
Oh no, I love you
More than life itself
