The Real You

Self Made Soul

I wish the music would carry me away
'cause I don't wanna be stuck down here and I wonder what I did this time Could I be so cavalier?

You know the lyrics and I know the melody so sing along, we'll write a song about you Don't have to wonder if you feel the same 'cause I know that you do

'cause I need this now, and you need this too
why should we wait on anything at all?
The way the light swims across your face how could I dream of anything but

The real you

Could it be that we met at the wrong time?
How am I supposed to live with that?
Always feeling like around the corner, he's gonna come back

'cause I need you, know you feel it too
why should we wait on anything at all?
The way the light swims across your face
how could I dream of anything but

The real you

you know it's taken my pride, yeah and now I'm frantic inside, yeah and what if we met at the wrong time?
What if we met at the wrong time?

you know it's taken my pride
now I'm frantic inside I know that I can't get over it and what if we met at the wrong time?

you know it's taken my pride
now I'm frantic inside

I know that I can't get over you I know that my dream will never do 'cause I just need the real you

The real you
