The Hurricane Master

Domine

Energy is lighting up the sky
A mighty thunder is breaking through the night
I saw your treason and I heard your vicious lies and I know what must be doneNow there's no tomorrow and I have no regret
Like a storm made of steel I strike
For I am the Avenger, predator of lies
And I let the angry north wind rise[Chorus]I am the Hurricane Master
Holy knight of the Ancient Code
I am The Hurricane Master
I'll blast your armies to kingdom comeWinds are rising, fast they're blowing
Men are running, loud they're screaming
See my anger, taste my vengeance
The worse is yet to comeSo here I go!Now there's no tomorrow and I have no regret
Like a storm made of steel I strike
For I am the Avenger, predator of lies
And I let the angry north wind rise[Chorus]I am the Hurricane Master
Holy knight of the Ancient Code
I am The Hurricane Master
I'll blast your armies to kingdom comeWinds are rising, fast they're blowing
Men are running, loud they're screaming
See my anger, taste my vengeanceAnd justice is done
And justice is done
And justice is done
And justice is done
And justice is done
justice is done
