

We Came to Dance

The Gaslight Anthem

We are the last of the jukebox Romeos.
We are romantics by the light of the fourway.
We came to sing out a chorus,
Reinvent the good times.
And to bring it all back home again. Honey we came to dance with the girls with the stars in their eyes.
Do the jump back Jack stop and slide to the right.
Never break their hearts,
Never make them cry, so come on.
Strike up the band with a song that everybody knows.
If I'm not your kind then don't tell a soul.
I'm not the one who hates being alone,
So come on. And in this unstable arena,
Of what's left or become of my America.
I'm asking this dance,
So come take my hand, come on
And in this unstable arena,
Of what's left or become of my America.
I'm asking this dance,
So come take my hand, come on Honey we came to dance with the girls with the stars in their eyes.
Do the jump back Jack stop and slide to the right.
Never break their hearts,
Never make them cry, come on.
Strike up the band with a song that everybody knows.
If I'm not your kind then don't tell a soul.
I'm not the one who hates being alone,
So come on. And if they end it all,
By the end of tonight,
If the big bomb drops down,
Over this quiet Edison sky.
We'll blow one last kiss,
To all the beautiful nights like this,
Under these central Jersey sky. Honey we came to dance with the girls with the stars in their eyes.
Do the jump back Jack stop and slide to the right.
Never break their hearts,
Never make them cry, so come on.
Honey, strike up the band with a song that everybody knows.
If I'm not your kind then don't tell a soul.
I'm not the one who hates being alone,
So come on. Cause you ain't never had a night on the town,

Like I could show you such a night on the town.
You ain't never had a song you could sing.
It's a deep dark night,
I hear you, I been there,
And these are the songs that we sing.
These are the songs that we sing.
You never seen a two step,
Like when you seen it from your Mama's house,
Where the kids flash like lightning,
to the very best dancers around.
We learned from the very best dancers around.
We learned from the very best dancers in town.
Come take my hand.
Mama, we came to dance.
