Jesus, I Surrender

Jeff Deyo

Here at Your feet, I'll always be
With the Angels crying, 'Holy'
There's not one thing that means
As much to me as You my God, as You my KingHere in the darkness
I lift my eyes to You
Your light comes shining throughJesus, I surrender
I draw nearer, I fall down
Master, be my Savior
Be my shelter, be my GodHere at Your feet, I'll always be
With the Angels crying holy
There's no one else who can compare to you
The righteous One, the perfect SonHere in this silence
I hear You speak my name
And I cry out to YouJesus, I surrender
I draw nearer, I fall down
Master, be my Savior
Be my shelter, be my GodBe my God
Be my GodHere in the darkness
I lift my eyes to You
Your light comes shining throughHere in this silence
I hear You speak my name
And I cry out to YouJesus, I surrender
I draw nearer, I fall down
Master, be my Savior
Be my shelter, be my GodJesus, I surrender
I draw nearer, I fall down
Master, be my Savior
Be my shelter, be my GodBe my God
Be my God
Be my God
Be my God
