

Katie Baby

House Of Heroes

if you so much as say my name into a phone that you dialed for my home i'll come running back again.
if you so much as entertain the thought of us that you had while riding bus i'll coming running back again.
katie baby you drive me crazy. i can't get you off my mind.
can't break the tie that binds. but now is not the time.
i'll get it right this time.
it's lonely. it's worth it. you better believe it's worth it.
watch the reruns in my mind.

drive by your house two or three times.
you're not home and i don't care.
lies.
you drive me crazy.
it's lonely. it's worth it.
