brainstorm (BIG MUFF)

Beck

You open up the door with your negative aura
You say future's murky indeed...
I'm sick of hearing your gripe.Open up the door with your negative aura
If you never ever change
I think the tiniest spark in your life will fizzle outYou open up the door with your negative aura
(I'm fed up fed up fed up)
You say future's murky indeed...
I'm sick of hearing you gripe.Open up the door with your negative aura
(I can't keep up with you)
If you never ever change
I think the tiniest spark in your life will fizzle outIf you are at a loss as to what to do.
Raise you stiff middle finger.
It will know which way the wind blows.Don't chain your affection
Awaken primal feeling
Don't benumb emotion
Sing out primal scream
Let loose every feeling from joy to griefDon't chain your affection
Awaken primal feeling
Don't benumb emotion
Sing out primal scream
Let loose every feeling from joy to griefGo against headwind or ride on the tailwind.
Game is in your hands.
How will you play?
Follow your brainstorm!!!How long will you go on lying?
Get wise tie yourself down
How long will you go on lying?
Breaking down a stick tight empty smile mask!!!Don't chain your affection
Awaken primal feeling
Don't benumb emotion
Sing out primal scream
Let loose every feeling from joy to grief
(x4)Go against headwind or ride on the tailwind.
Game is in your hands.
How do you play?
Follow your brainstorm!!!
