

Pennies

Adam Newman

Yeah, fothermuckers it's Lady Sovereign

S O V

Speak my mind, I don't like them liars

Find your ride and I'll pop your tires

Cross the line and you're fucking fired

Yes, it's burning and I've got that fire

See the money I'm effing, I'm making

Hope this goes straight into my savings

Where it's fucked, yeah it's Sovereign

Yeah, I'm still in the game, still changing

Make you money man

Make you, make you money man

Make you money man

Make you, make you money man

How many pennies have you gotten from me?

Oi, I can hear your bling when you're thinking

Ring-a-ding, I left my phone ringing

All day long, please don't mind me singing

Oh, but how much I hate your wingding

Just because I'm a little younger

Don't mind me daft, don't make you smarter

All day long I break down with laughter

When you lose your temper you're an asshole

Make you money man

Make you, make you money man

Make you money man

Make you, make you money man

How many pennies have you gotten from me?

How many pennies have you gotten from me?
How many pennies have you gotten from me?
How many pennies have you gotten from me?
    How many pennies have you?
    How many pennies have you?
    How many pennies have you?
    How many pennies have you?
How many pennies have you gotten from me?
    Gotten from me
    Have you gotten from me?
    Have you gotten from me?
How many pennies have you gotten from me?
Yeah, there might be a bit of a recession going on right now
    But I ain't going down like you suckers
Trust me, when you rip me off I'll rip your head off
    Yeah, it's Lady Sovereign
