

From Hell to the West

Upon This Dawning

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I know we'll be always together
This moment will last foreverWe are sailing around the desert
Moving from hell to the west
To the fucking westLook at the skyline, we've found our way home
Look at that shining light
Light that will shine on usI know we'll be always together
This moment will last foreverI can see the sun beyond these fucking walls
I will live my life like every day's the lastI know we'll be always together
This moment will last forever
And I'm sure that wherever I go, I won't be alone
I won't be aloneI've never seen
I've never seen the ocean
But I can feel the waves inside of meMoving from hell to the west
To the fucking westAnd I will see what my eyes have never seenI know we'll be always together
This moment will last forever
And I'm sure that wherever I go, I won't be alone
I won't be aloneAnd I will see what my eyes have never seen
And I will see what my eyes have never seenI've never seen
I've never seen the ocean
But I can feel the waves inside of meI've never seen
I've never seen the ocean
But I can feel the waves inside of me
