Rainbow's End

Ed Motta

What is there to find
At rainbow's end?
Only love would know,
But love is blind
Now and then it throws a windos
Open to the skies,
Make you sad with happiness
When lost in paradise
Movies make me wonder when
The moons start colliding.
Flowers! send me lots of flowers
And more than gold,
It's you I'll find, my friend
At rainbow's end

One regards l'amour
In black and white
Love le cinÃ©ma d'aprÃ¨s capra
Beauty's the only thing
To find among the photographs
From each moment of despair
We learn to steal a kiss

Just make a wish and thos days are there shining
Vainish! shining through the haze
And more than gold,
It's you I'll, find, my friend
At rainbow's end

One will need more luck if it's Shangai
More than a lucky star,
You need style
Beauty's the only thing to find among the photographs
From each moment of despair
We learn to steal a kiss
Buckets of bliss when you see
Through the movies
Flowers! send me lots of flowers
And more tha gold,

It's you I'll find, my friend
At rainbow's end
