

I Don't Wanna Rock

Bowling for Soup

It really sucks to give your heart to a girl
You wanna know her like she knows the whole world
But 10 seconds and it's obvious it's goin' nowhere
She makes you tell her that she's your best friend
You tell her things you know won't make her mad
Don't wanna be the one to say things are goin' nowhere
Where are you now?
Where are you now?
I don't wanna talk, I don't wanna rock
I don't wanna wait by the phone
And I don't wanna tell you I love you
Don't wanna tell you I love you anymore
It's hard to live outside a safety zone
'Cause you remember bein' all alone
Two kinds of misery and either way, you're going nowhere
Where are you now?
Where are you now?
I don't wanna talk, I don't wanna rock
I don't wanna wait by the phone
And I don't wanna tell you I love you
Don't wanna tell you I love you anymore
Don't wanna tell you I love you
Don't wanna tell you I love you anymore
And she makes me want to be a homosexual
Maybe I'll be your best friend
Maybe see ya naked once in a while
I don't wanna talk, I don't wanna rock
I don't wanna talk, I don't wanna rock
I don't wanna talk, I don't wanna rock
I don't wanna wait by the phone
And I don't wanna tell you I love you
Don't wanna tell you I love you anymore
Don't wanna tell you I love you
Don't wanna tell you I love you
Don't wanna tell you I love you
Don't wanna tell you I love you
I don't wanna tell you I love you anymore
