

Sometimes

Bobby Meader Music

Cause I've been waiting to hear your voice
And I've been waiting to get your call
Cause I've been waiting to not feel lonely
Cause sometimes I can't be happy at all I tried so hard to let it go Scribbled notebooks read "I just need to know"
I'm staring at this bottle and it's giving me hope that I won't be alone Cause I've been waiting, to hear your voice
And I've been waiting to get your call
Cause I've been waiting to not feel lonely
Cause sometimes I can't be happy at all Silent apologies they tinge my throat
Preoccupying my time as you deftly approach
I can see it all before me putting up a fight
But I know I'm right Cause I've been waiting to hear your voice
And I've been waiting to get your call
Cause I've been waiting to not feel lonely
Cause sometimes I can't be happy at all Cause I've been waiting to hear your voice
And I've been waiting to get your call
And I've been waiting to not feel lonely
Cause sometimes I can't be happy at all
