

Tangled and Dark

Bonnie Raitt

Gonna get into it, babe
Down where it's tangled and dark
Way on into it, baby
Down where your fears are parked Gonna tell the truth about it, babe
Honey, that's the hardest part
When we get through it, baby
You're gonna give up your heart Gonna get into it, baby
Gonna give them demons a call, babe
Way on into it, baby
Gonna find out once and for all Gonna get a little risky, baby
Honey, that's my favorite part
When we get through it, baby
Gonna give up our hearts
Gonna give up our hearts Well, there's no turnin' back
No turnin' back this time
Well, there's no turnin' back
No turnin' back No use in runnin'
It's always the same
You can count on the panic
It's the faces that change We might have a chance
To get this love off the block
So take a deep breath
Let's look under that rock, now baby Gonna get into it, baby
Down where it's tangled and dark, no, no, baby
Way on into it, baby
Down where your fears are parked Gonna tell the truth about it, baby
Honey, that's the hardest part
When we get through it, baby
You're gonna give up If we get through it, baby
You're gonna give up, you're gonna give up
When we get through it, baby
You're gonna give up your heart Gonna give up your heart
Gonna give up your heart
Ooh babe, gonna give up
You're gonna give up, you're gonna give up
Gonna give up, gonna give up your heart Hey baby, gonna give up, gonna give up
Gonna give up, gonna give up
Gonna give up your heart
