Where Beasts Die (Kyson Remix)

:Papercutz

I'll follow you to where the scent of a new beginning leads.
Across a land we once knew where the wild boldly grew.
Can you hear the lone wolf howling into the night? With pride.
We've traveled over the seas far beyond our insecurities.
Now we're finally reaching the lilac tree.
With all your perfect imperfections when I walk beside you I'm a better me.I will follow you
I will follow you
I will follow you
I will follow you
to where beasts die.Into the wild we go.
The greatest unknown.I will follow you
I will follow you
I will follow you
I will follow you
to where beasts die.
