This Girl

Kylie Minogue

Take me as I am Though I'm good at pretending I tire easily And hurry to the endingThere's more than what you see But not the way you see it I hope you follow me And you get the meaningHere is where I stand Here is who I amAnd I'm not interested in fitting in I only want to be, to be this girl I'm not interested in giving in I only want to be this girlTake me as you will Under no illusions I offer myself whole I give into youAnd I offer you the sky The sun and moon and seas But you need to know that I'm Not more or less than meHere is where I stand Here is who I amAnd I'm not interested in fitting in I only want to be, to be this girl I'm not interested in giving in I only want to be this girlI'm not interested in fitting in I only want to be, to be this girl I'm not interested in giving in I only want to be this girlThis girl
