

Can't Be Broken

Twin Forks

Someone carved you out of ivory,
With some porcelain and brass,
Then they looked upon your face,
And they knew they'd done their task. So they tore their tools to pieces, laid em underneath the grass,
There wont be another like you,
I don't even have to ask. I stumbled on you sittin',
On the bench beside the bank,
By the river where the dam was,
Before the old town went and sank. Said I'd be grateful just to sit,
Could you spare a little plank?
You said I found it when I got here,
So you ain't got me to thank. -Chorus-
That's a love that, cant be broken,
That's the sting of a, heart cut open,
That's the thing about, blind devotion,
That's a love that, can't be broken, A love that can't be broken -Verse-
Well I can sing the lead,
You can sing the harmony,
We could play out on the porch,
Let it blow off in the breeze, We can listen as it lingers,
Through the leaves left on the trees,
Well stay out on till the sun comes rising,
Up from end to East, Cause we live in the city now,
We live along the shore,
We looked twice before we left,
But we don't look back no more, We fell sick for one another,
may we never find the cure,
You can handle my best easy
I can try to handle yours. -Chorus-
Thats a love that, cant be broken,
Thats the sting of a, heart cut open,
Thats the thing about, blind devotion,
Thats a love that, cant be broken, -Verse-
Its the, way you stay right, by my side,
Its the, way you lay your, lips on mine,
You're the, rarest thing that I'll, ever find,
My love -Chorus-
Thats a love that, cant be broken,

Thats the sting of a, heart cut open,
Thats the thing about, blind devotion,
Thats a love that, cant be broken,Thats a love that, cant be broken,
Thats the sting of a, heart cut open,
Thats the thing about, blind devotion,
Thats a love that, cant be broken,-Break--Chorus-
Thats a love that, cant be broken,
Thats the sting of a, heart cut open,
Thats the thing about, blind devotion,
Thats a love that, cant be broken,Thats a love that, cant be broken,
Thats a love that, cant be broken,
Thats the thing about, blind devotion,
Thats a love that, cant be broken,Thats a love that, cant be broken
