Firefly

Breaking Benjamin

You my friend You're a lot like them

But I cut your line

And you know I didNow I'm lost in you

Like I always do

And I die to win

'Cause I'm born to loseFirefly

Could you shine your light?

Now I know your ways

'Cause they're just like mine

Now I'm justified

As I fall in line

An' it's hard to try

When you're open wideTake my hand

We'll be off and then

We'll come back again

To a different landNow I like this way

You can go away

If you guess the name

You cannot replaceFirefly

Could you shine your light?

Now I know your ways

'Cause they're just like mine

Now I'm justified

As I fall in line

And it's hard to try

When you're open wideBring me your enemies

Lay them before me

And walk away

Walk away

Walk awayFirefly

Could you shine your light?

Now I know your ways

'Cause they're just like mine

Now I'm justified

As I fall in line

And it's hard to try

When you're open wideFuck you firefly

Have you lost your light?

Now I hate your ways
'Cause they're just like mine
So you've lost my friend
Such a sorry end
And now I don't know why?
So I choke and smile
Smile
