

All Time Favourite

Bahamas

All time favorite love
Trying to pick one would seem like
 Some kind of gun to my head
Yours surely stands out from the rest
Someone put you here in front of me
 Like some cruel kind of test
 You and I are one and the same
We are the cause of each other's pain
 Though the love is born in shame
 Now there is no one to blame
If we're both the same you and me
 Closer then we'll ever see
 Sad eyes all the time
Thinking that if yours could just see mine
 But were blind to each other
The sweet soft words you're longing for
Now it seems like I'm looking well beyond
 That old stage door
 You and I are one and the same
We are the cause of each other's pain
 And though love is born in shame
 Now there is no one in blame
Cause were both the same you and me
 Closer then we'll ever see
 Yeah were both the same you and me
