Living Dead

S.E.M;I

There came a time in my life
When everything seemed alright
But everything turned out wrong
And now I've got to carry on
Without you in my life
Sleep through the day into the night
Roll out of bed what can be said
I'm living now but I feel dead
He doesn't realize what he's got
I'll be there when he is not
I hope I stay stuck in his head
I'm living now but I feel dead
You walked away yesterday
Now today, there's nothing to say
So tomorrow will never know
What should have been or could have been
'Cause yesterday has been done
You walked away yesterday
Now today, there's nothing to say
So tomorrow will never know
What should have been or could have been
'Cause yesterday has been done
